Data Privacy Statement

In completing this report form you are providing details on yourself and on others. Details such as name, address and date of birth fall under the definition of 'Personal Data' in the Data Protection Acts, 1988 & 2003. Tusla has a responsibility under these Acts in its capacity as a Data Controller to, amongst other things, obtain and process this data fairly; keep it safe and secure; and to keep it for a specified lawful purpose. That purpose is to fulfil our statutory responsibility under the Child Care Act 1991 to promote the protection and welfare of children. Tusla may, during the course of the assessment of this report disclose such Personal Data to other agencies including An Garda Síochána. Further details about Tusla's responsibilities as a Data Controller and your rights as a Data Subject can be found on our website, www.tusla.ie. As you are providing Personal Data on others, you are a Data Processor. We ask that you only provide those details that are necessary for the report and that you keep this report and the Personal Data contained in it secure from unauthorised access, disclosure, destruction or accidental loss. Tusla will share personal data with the National Council for Special Education, to ensure that they are appropriately engaged with the child and an integrated approach is in place. The legal basis for this is Section 28 of the Education (Welfare) Act 2000. If you have any concerns about this, please contact TESS.

Have the parents/guardians consented to the use of a reduced school day?	Yes	Has the student been involved in the process?	No
--	-----	---	----

Please set out the reasons for the use of a reduced school day	It is proving extremely challenging for Nazar to be able to regulate himself to be able to manage in the class setting. Despite sensory breaks, SET and SNA support, Nazar struggles on a daily basis to cope with either a mainstream or SET setting, becoming highly agitated to the extent that staff are unable to help him to self regulate.
